

The residential section of Swatow, China, showing the damage done by a typhoon which almost wiped out the town. One hundred thousand lives were lost and much property and shipping in the path of the typhoon were destroyed.

Kadel & Herbert.

Mrs. Oliver Atkey, Britain's leading woman aviator, who recently created a new long distance record for women fliers carrying a passenger.

New York Herald Foreign Photo.

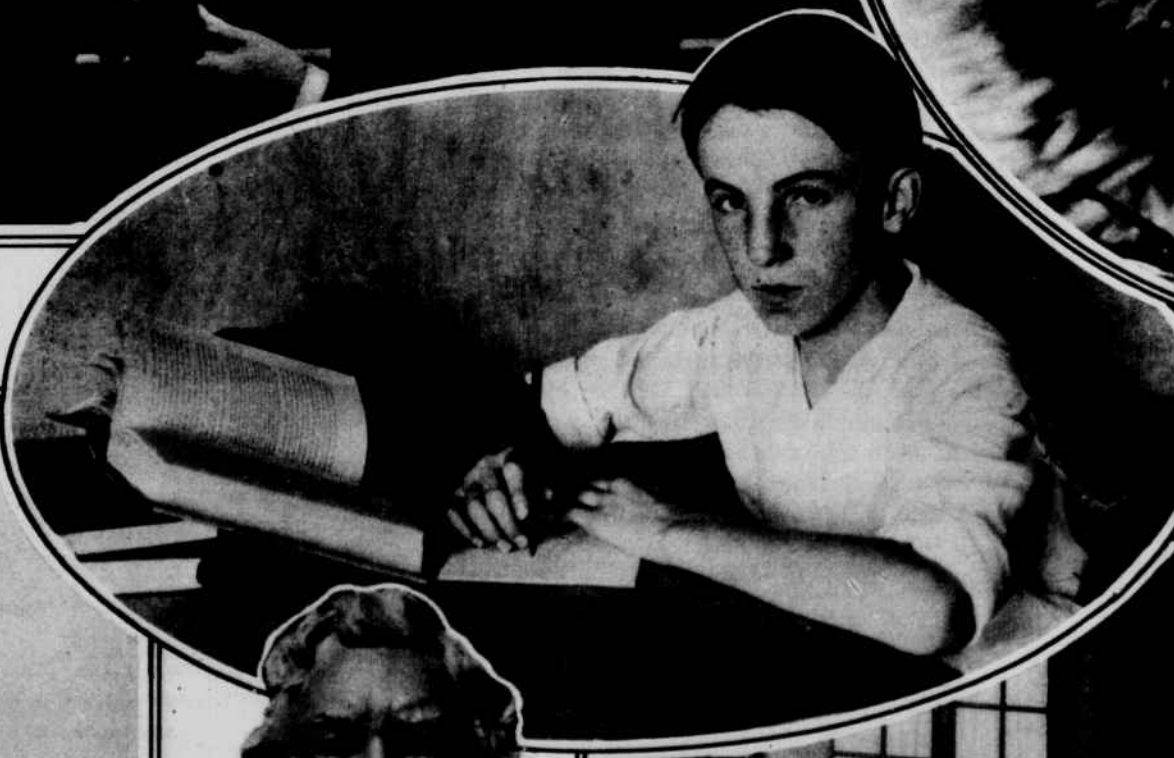

Gen. Sir Alexander Godley, British Rhine Army Commander-in-Chief, presenting to Major W. Downer, U. S. A., the cup for winning the team jumping competition at the Rhine Army Horse Show in Cologne.

Central News.

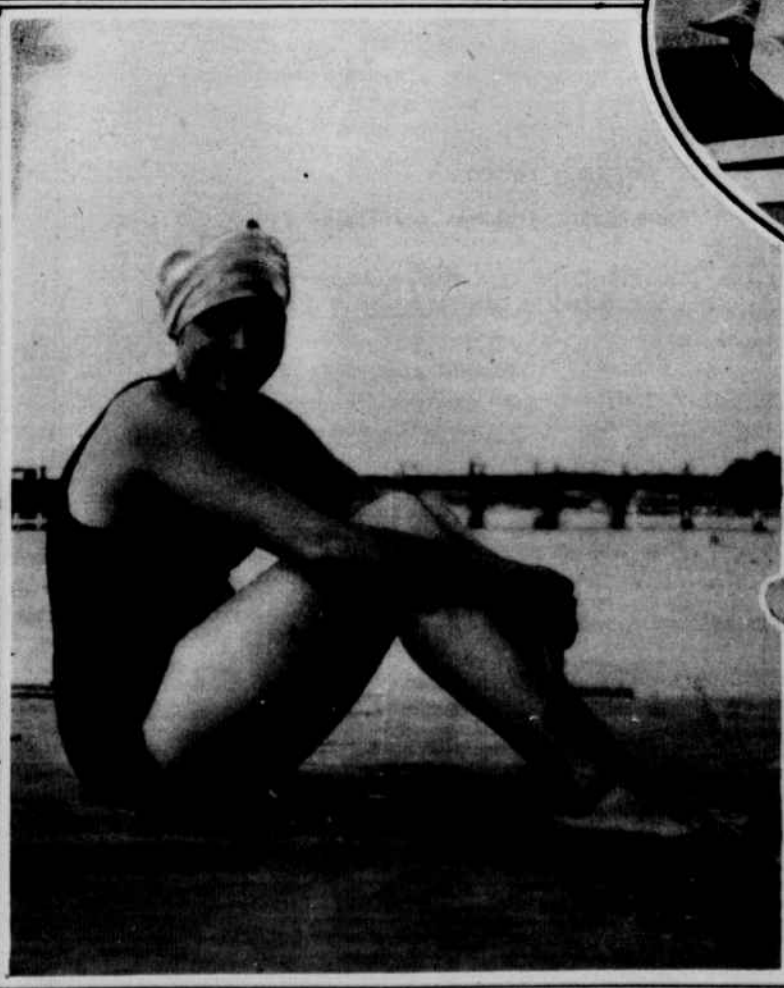

"Tiger II," first prize winner in the International Cat Show held in Paris, whose owner has refused $5,000 for him.

Kadel & Herbert.

At left—Ulric MacHale of Forest City, Pa., the youngest student in the Catholic University at Washington, D. C., who is studying for an A. B. degree at the age of 13.

Fotograms

Miss Thelma Tipson of Port Washington, L. I., 14 years of age, and a possible coming swimming champion. She has already a number of victories to her credit in open competition.

A bust of Father Sylvester Malone of Brooklyn, former Regent of the University of the State of New York, by Edmond T. Quinn, which will be presented to the Board of Regents this week by the Citizens Committee.

A group of students of the American Conservatory at Fontainebleau. Seated on the left center are M. and Mme. Casadesus, directors of the school.

New York Herald Foreign Photo.